NARRATIVE:

Lamarr King has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include rape, unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor, lewd acts with a child under 14, first degree robbery, second degree robbery, possession of a controlled substance for sale, transporting controlled substances and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 5 year term for transporting controlled substances. King was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 29, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). King qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for transporting controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
